

European University Institute

ROBERT SCHUMAN CENTRE FOR ADVANCED STUDIES

GLOBALCIT is the successor of the EUDO Citizenship Observatory and the most important online source of information on citizenship laws and electoral rights worldwide. It provides user-friendly open access to a comprehensive collection of data and analyses for academic researchers and policy communities.

NETWORK

GLOBALCIT relies on a network of academic experts who write country reports, collect legal documents and provide input into our comparative databases on citizenship and electoral rights. Currently our network includes 202 country experts and 169 external contributors.

RESEARCH

Themes

Citizenship

Electoral Rights

Core Activities

Database Creation

Comparative Analysis

Timeline

- 2008 EUDO CITIZENSHIP established as one of four European Union Democracy Observatories
- 2009 Comparative databases on modes of acquisition and loss of citizenship
- 2012 Geographic expansion to the Southern and Eastern European neighbourhood
- 2013 Launch of Citizenship Indicators
- 2014 Thematic expansion from citizenship status to electoral rights
- 2015 Geographic expansion to the Americas
- 2015 ELECLAW indicators on electoral rights
- 2017 EUDO Citizenship becomes the Global Citizenship Observatory (GLOBALCIT)
- 2018 GLOBALCIT formally becomes one of the research areas of the Global Governance Programme

PARTNERS

GLOBALCIT brings together the expertise of the European University Institute's Global Governance Programme (GGP), the University of Edinburgh and the Maastricht Center for Citizenship, Migration and Development (MACIMIDE). These partners with their permanent research teams form the core of GLOBALCIT. They are represented by the three co-directors of the observatory, Rainer Bauböck, Jo Shaw and Maarten Vink.

Key figures

Over 300 open access publications including Country Reports, Comparative Analyses and Working Papers

31,000 users of the new GLOBALCIT website since January 2018

100,000 page views with 40 per cent of returning users

GLOBALCIT TEAM

Rainer Bauböck
European University Institute
Co-director

Jo Shaw
University of Edinburgh
Co-director

Maarten Vink
University of Maastricht
Co-director

Jelena Dzankic
European University Institute
Coordinator

Lorenzo Piccoli
European University Institute
Research Associate

AREAS OF RESEARCH

CITIZENSHIP LAW

- 27 modes of citizenship acquisition
- 15 modes of citizenship loss
- 175 countries

ELECTORAL RIGHTS

- Voting rights
- Candidacy rights
- Resident citizens
- Citizens abroad
- Foreign residents

PROJECTS

The EU-CITZEN Network aims to provide the European Commission with the best scholarly knowledge on the rights of EU citizenship. As a member of this network, GLOBALCIT investigates political participation of EU citizens in local and European Parliament elections.

FAIR EU (Fostering Awareness Inclusion and Recognition) aims to foster the successful inclusion of EU mobile citizens in their host EU country's civic and political life. Within this collaborative project, GLOBALCIT studies difficulties EU citizens face when exercising their rights.

Project staff: Alina Ostling, Maria Haag and Oliver Garner are research associates on these two projects.

CONTACT DETAILS

Global Citizenship Observatory (GLOBALCIT)
European University Institute, Villa Schifanoia
Via Boccaccio 121, 50133 Florence, Italy
Email: globalcit@eui.eu

@_Globalcit

@GlobalcitEUI

RESOURCES FOR ACADEMIC AND POLICY COMMUNITIES

Country profiles

up to date reports, legislation, and news on citizenship and electoral rights

Legal databases

the most comprehensive online collection of citizenship and electoral laws, with user-friendly search menus and direct links to full texts

Comparative databases

allow users to compare acquisition and loss of citizenship and barriers to electoral rights across countries and over time

Indicators

measure how inclusive legal provisions are. Users can create their own charts and maps as well as download the data

Forum debates

expert online discussions on citizenship that are at the centre of academic and political debates

Blog

comments on recent developments and analyses of current issues

News

unique repository of media reports on significant legislative changes, court decisions and policy developments

Publications

country and comparative reports, working papers, policy analyses